DAYS OF ABSTINENCE.

All the Fridays throughout the year.

Sundays in Lent, except where the Ordinary otherwise permits.

N. B.—Soldiers and sailors in the service of the United States, even in barracks, garrisons, &c., are dispensed, by an indult of Pope Pius IX., from the rule of abstinence, except on six days in each year, viz.: Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Holy Week, the Vigil of the Assumption, and Christmas Eve.

COLOR OF VESTMENTS WORN IN THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS.

White is used on the festivals of our Lord, of the B. Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Finding and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs, except the Holy Innocents.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember Days, and Rogation Days, when the office is of them, and on Dec. 28th.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday exclusively, when the office is of the Sunday; but in the Paschal time the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead; which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a double, except from Palm Sunday to Low Sunday, and during the octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

COPY OF A LETTER

Accompanying a Gold Medal sent by the Holy Father,
 TO EDWARD DUNIGAN & BROTHER.

Most worthy and respected Gentlemen:

Some books, which, as it appeared by your most courteous letter, you wished to offer to our most holy Lord Pope Pius IX., have been lately handed to him. This act on your part could not but please his Holiness, and the zeal you constantly show by the publication of works in defence and protection of the cause of the Catholic Religion, gives him great joy.

The Sovereign Pontiff, therefore, with great pleasure encourages you in your course by this letter, and returns you his thanks for the gift which you offer.

I am, moreover, ordered to transmit a Gold Medal, which the same benign Pontiff sends, impressed with his august effigy, and with it, as a pledge of his paternal and especial affection towards you, his Apostolic blessing, which, as an auspice of all heavenly good, he lovingly grants you with the most sincere affection of his heart.

I have only to profess my respects to you, Gentlemen, on whom I earnestly implore all that is saving and propitious from our Lord.

Gentlemen,

Your most humble and obedient Servant,

DOMINIC FIORAMONTI,

Latin Secretary to his Holiness.

Rome, July 6th, 1853.

To E. DUNIGAN & BROTHER, New York.

ST. JOHN'S MANUAL :

A GUIDE TO THE

Public Worship and Services

OF

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

AND A

COLLECTION OF DEVOTIONS

FOR THE PRIVATE USE OF THE FAITHFUL.

ST. JOHN'S MANUAL is, it is hoped, the most complete and accurate prayer book ever offered to the Catholic community in the United States. Many of the present books of devotion being reprints of European works, are far from conforming to the Roman office books as authorised for use in this country, and are devoid of such explanations as enable the uninstructed to follow our service. The St. John's Manual conforms strictly to the rules of the Holy See in this regard.

In a word, the compilers have conscientiously endeavored to draw from the holy service books of the Church, as published by the authority of the Councils of Baltimore, from the works of her canonized Saints, and approved ascetics and theologians, such prayers and instructions as may meet the wants of the faithful, and render this Manual the best and most complete Catholic Prayer Book for devotional and family use yet published.

In a material point of view, St. John's Manual has been got up in the best style; printed on paper of surpassing fineness, from new type expressly selected, and is adorned with Vignettes designed for and appropriate to the work. The steel engravings, by Muller of Dusseldorf, are of an entirely new character, illustrating the Sacraments and Rites of the Church. The work itself, of which the contents are annexed, is intended not only to furnish a manual of the most approved prayers and devotions for health and sickness, but also to give the offices and ceremonies of the Church, with such explanations as will enable all to follow them.

APPROBATION OF THE ORDINARY.

"St. John's Manual," having been duly examined, we hereby approve of its publication.

✠ JOHN, Archbishop of New York.

New York, Aug. 25, 1856.

Archbishop Blanc of New Orleans.

"St. John's Manual" is, beyond all contradiction, the most complete collection of all that, in the way of prayers and exercises of devotion, can best aid to follow profitably the public service of the Church in this Country, and to nourish private piety and devotion. I shall be most happy if my commendation induces the Catholics of my diocese who speak English to obtain it.

Yours devotedly in Xt.,

✠ ANTH., Archbishop of New Orleans.

Archbishop of Quebec.

It is an excellent book, and cannot fail to increase sentiments of devotion in those who have it in their possession. May it be circulated among the faithful.

✠ P. F., Archbishop of Quebec.

Bishop Timon of Buffalo.

A good manual of prayer is of great advantage to the Catholic public. Such, we think, is the "St. John's Manual," published by Messrs. Dunigan & Brother, with the approbation of the Most Rev. Dr. Hughes. At the request of the publishers we cheerfully recommend it to the faithful.

✠ JOHN, Bishop of Buffalo.

Feast of the Immaculate Conception, 8th Dec., 1856.

Bishop Loughlin of Brooklyn.

We most cheerfully recommend the "St. John's Manual," approved by the Most Rev. Dr. Hughes.

✠

✠ JOHN, Bishop of Brooklyn.

✠ ANDREW, Bishop of Little Rock.

Brooklyn, Dec. 10, 1856.

Bishop McCloskey of Albany.

I fully approve of and recommend the prayer-book entitled "St. John's Manual," and published by Dunigan & Brother.

✠ JOHN, Bishop of Albany.

Bishop Young of Erie.

Your "St. John's Manual" is certainly the most comprehensive and complete prayer book that I have met with in the English language, while its various instructions and devotions seem admirably adapted to guide and, I would hope, stimulate the piety of the faithful. Your enterprise, in bringing it out so neatly and so sumptuously, will, therefore, be a success entirely well deserved, on which I congratulate you.

✠ J. M. YOUNG, Bishop of Erie.

Bishop Bacon of Portland.

It is unnecessary to ask my approval of a prayer-book to the Catholic public with the approbation of our most venerated and Rev. Archbishop. I have, however, examined the work since the reception of a copy, and think it most appropriate to the use of the faithful. I offer you my congratulations on your enterprise and zeal, and pray that you may be ever successful and reap a rich harvest in return.

✠ DAVID W., Bishop of Portland.

Bishop Spalding of Louisville.

Having examined the prayer-book, "The St. John's Manual," lately published by Dunigan & Brother, we take pleasure in uniting with the Most Rev. Archbishop of New York, in approving the same, and in recommending it to the faithful of our diocese.

✠ MARTIN JOHN SPALDING, Bishop of Louisville.

Bishop Connolly of St. John.

Your truly splendid "St. John's Manual" is quite equal, if not superior, to any thing of the kind I have seen in the old country, and must be, I am sure, all that could suit the taste of the fastidious at this side of the Atlantic.

✠ THOMAS L. CONNOLLY, Bishop of St. John.

Bishop Henni of Milwaukee.

Aside from its truly handsome mechanical execution, well worthy of your firm, "St. John's Manual" is a well-selected and complete compendium of devotion for a great portion of our people. May they profit by your noble endeavor, for such is the wish of Yours, truly devoted,

✠ JOHN MARTIN, Bishop of Milwaukee.

Feb. 22d, 1857.

Bishop Bourget of Montreal.

Having examined a new prayer-book, entitled "St. John's Manual," published by the house of Dunigan & Brother, New York, we approve it by these presents, and recommend it to the piety of the faithful.

✠ I. G., Bishop of Montreal.

Montreal, Feb. 27th, 1857.

Bishop Demers of Vancouver's Island.

I am very happy to avail myself of this opportunity to add my humble approbation to that already given the "St. John's Manual," by many Archbishops and Bishops of this country. . . . Among the many works of piety offered to the Catholic community, I have no hesitation in saying that "St. John's Manual" deserves an eminent rank.

✠ MOD. DEMERS, Bishop of Vancouver's Island.

June, 1857.

Bishop Miles of Nashville.

I highly approve of the "St. John's Manual," and recommend it to the Catholics of my diocese and all others of the United States.

✠ RICHARD PIUS MILES, Bishop of Nashville.

Nashville, March 4, 1857.

Bishop Martin of Natchitoches.

I already knew this excellent book from the unanimous commendations of our Catholic papers, but I must acknowledge I had no correct idea of its high merit and value.

"St. John's Manual" is certainly, in every respect, superior to any prayer-book ever published in this country, nor do I know of any one in Europe so complete in what is usual, and so rich in precious selections.

Receive my share of gratitude, as a Bishop, for your persevering endeavors to make yourself useful to our Holy Church.

✠ AUG., Bishop of Natchitoches.

Natchitoches, March 3, 1857.

Bishop Larocque of Cydonia.

"St. John's Manual," having been carefully examined by his Grace, the Archbishop of New York, I cannot but have every confidence in its perfect orthodoxy. The approbation which you ask of me can refer only to its utility. In this respect, I do but simple justice in awarding my praise to the judicious and pious discernment with which the author has compiled the many prayers and instructions condensed in this collection. May "St. John's Manual" find its way to every family, it will meet every want, satisfy every desire as a book of devotion.

✠ JOS., Bishop of Cydonia.

St. Hyacinthe, 9th March, 1857.

Bishop McGill of Richmond.

An examination of the table of contents and the general plan of your new prayer-book, the "St. John's Manual," satisfies me that it is a very useful and elegant book of devotion. It seems to be at once comprehensive and complete, containing valuable instructions concerning the sacraments and other matters of Christian practice, and offering most beautiful prayers and appropriate exercises for the different devotions and pious associations, which the Church approves as aids to a spiritual life.

✠ JOHN MCGILL, Bishop of Richmond.

Bishop Blanchet of Nesqually.

The approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of New York is, doubtless, sufficient to attest the usefulness and value of "St. John's Manual." Yet I cannot withhold my humble approbation, which I willingly add to that of the illustrious prelate.

AUGUSTINE M. AL., Bishop of Nesqually.

Washington Territory, May 21, 1857.

Bishop Baraga of Saut Sainte Marie.

After a due examination of "St. John's Manual," published by Messrs. Ed. Dunigan & Brother (James B. Kirker), New York, I find that it is the most complete and perfect prayer-book that ever has come to my knowledge, not only in English but also in several other languages. It is a new proof of the old assertion, that the Catholic community of the United States are under great obligations to Dunigan & Brother's old publishing establishment, for the compilation and publication of useful Catholic works.

✠ FREDERIC BARAGA, Bishop of Saut Sainte Marie.

June 1, 1857.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"This is a new, and we think will be a formidable aspirant to popularity among the host of prayer-books now in favor. 'St. John's Manual' is a fresh compilation, and avoids the absurdity to be found in many other prayer-books, of offices peculiar to other countries, and unmeaningly reprinted here. It is enough for the elegance of the book to say, that Dunigan & Brother have gotten it up in their best style. It is a very complete manual, and possesses many merits not shared with other prayer-books."—Free-man's Journal.

"We thought there was an end of prayer-book making progress. But 'St. John's Manual,' just published by Dunigan & Brother, surpasses all its predecessors. It contains the ordinary of the Mass, Epistles and Gospels for all the festivals of the year, Devotions, Litanies, Novenas, &c., in a more convenient form—just the thing to take the eye and satisfy the devout."—Catholic Telegraph and Advocate.

"This is a new prayer-book, got up expressly for the wants of the present time, and adapted to the use of the faithful in this country; the Office Books and Rituals, authorized for use in the United States, being strictly followed. It is the most complete prayer-book that has been issued from the Catholic press of this country, and will, we feel confident, become the favorite of the faithful."—Pittsburg Catholic.

"This is one of the most beautiful of the many fine editions of Catholic prayer-books issued by this house. There are some fifteen beautifully executed engravings, and the style of printing and designs ornamental, are in good and appropriate taste. As a prayer-book, 'St. John's Manual' is destined to become a favorite. The devotional prayers are in large print, which is very desirable. There are no less than forty-seven Litanies to be found, and the other exercises are proportionately numerous."—Leader.

"This is certainly the most complete collection of devotional exercises that has yet been published."—Catholic Herald.

"We are very late in noticing this excellent Manual, which has been before the public nearly two years. Although it contains several Litanies not approved by the Church, as do nearly all our Manuals, it is, to our judgment and taste, one of the very best of the 'monster' prayer-books that have been published. We are not, for ourselves, in favor of such huge prayer-books, . . . but, if we must have them, we think the one before us is the very best."—Brownson's Review. (Jan. 1858.)
